

Agenda IDFB17: How global front-runners are closing the biodiversity funding gap

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 14:00 – 14:20 | The session will open with Caroline van Leenders and Daan Groot welcoming new and old members of the IDFB community. They will introduce the IDFB and its work over the past years, before kicking off a round of introductions in the group and introducing the topic of the Session and our speakers. |
| 14:20 – 14:50 | Our first speaker, Claudia Kruse of APG, will speak on the role and needs of global investors in helping to achieve the Global Biodiversity Framework and discuss the steps APG has been taking to address the finance gap. After her presentation, there will be room for questions and discussion. |
| 14:50 – 15:00 | Break |
| 15:00 – 15:20 | Our second speaker is Natacha Boric of Finance for Biodiversity (FfB) Foundation. Natacha will share insights from the upcoming discussion paper on building a working definition of Finance for Nature Positive that can support practices of financial institutions across financial portfolios, asset classes, and activities of private financial institutions. |
| 15:20 – 15:35 | A discussion on how and under which conditions global investors can close the global biodiversity funding gap will follow, and community members are invited to share their experiences on engaging with large investors and needs and wants for furthering engagement of the private financial sector. |
| 15:35 – 15:45 | Hadrien Gaudin-Hamama, Impact & ESG specialist at Mirova and co-chair of the Positive Impact working group of the Finance for Biodiversity Foundation, will kick off the reflections on today's discussions and on the key insights that can be brought to the discussions in Cali. Other panelists and the IDFB community are invited to share their insights as well. |
| 15:45 – 15:55 | Caroline van Leenders will then walk us through the IDFB Roadmap to COP16, providing updates on key events and resources, as well as providing insights to the upcoming IDFB guidance on NBFP development. |
| 15:55 – 16:00 | Closing |
